The Introduction

- The introduction guides the reader into your paper by grabbing attention and introducing the topic.
- It should name the title and author of the piece and give a brief description of the plot of the piece.
- Introduce your essay by having a HOOK!! This is merely a catchy first sentence that will grab the reader's attention
- Make sure to introduce your topic. Provide a brief synopsis of what your topic is and also remember to include your reference works (i.e.. John Wyndham's The Chrysalids)
- Where the reader finds the thesis statement, which is the guide to the entire essay.

Remember to have a concluding sentence in your introduction.
